

Press Releases | Centene Corporation

ST. LOUIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 6, 2004--Centene Corporation (NYSE:CNC) today announced the following personnel promotions, which are effective immediately:

- Cary Hobbs, formerly Vice President, Strategy and Business Implementation, was named Senior Vice President, Strategy and Business Implementation. In addition to coordinating Centene's business research and strategy implementation activities, Ms. Hobbs is responsible for the oversight and ongoing implementation of the company's Corporate Ethics & Compliance program, as well as the Corporate Communications, Legal Affairs, Customer Service, Member Services and Provider Affairs departments. She continues to report to Michael F. Neidorff, Centene's President and Chief Executive Officer.
- John (Jay) Belew was promoted to Vice President, Claims Operations. He has served as Director of Centene's Claims Operations since joining the company in 2001. He reports to Chuck Mangene, Vice President of Health & Claims Information Systems.
- H. Robert Sanders, who had been Centene's Director of Compensation and Benefits since joining the company in January 2003, was promoted to Vice President, Compensation and Benefits. He reports to Carol Goldman, Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer.

Ms. Hobbs and Mr. Sanders will continue to work out of Centene's St. Louis headquarters. Mr. Belew remains based at the company's Farmington, Mo. office.

"The dedication and hard work of each of these individuals have had a tremendous positive impact on the growth of the Centene Corporation," said Michael F. Neidorff, Centene's President and Chief Executive Officer. "These promotions are much deserved, and reflect our continued confidence in their abilities."

Ms. Hobbs has worked in the managed care industry for the past 11 years. Before joining Centene in 1997, she was responsible for the development and implementation of the corporate Community Relations and Communications departments for both Coventry and United HealthCare Corporation Plans. She is a graduate of Valparaiso University and holds a master's degree from Washington University in St. Louis.

Mr. Belew is a 19-year veteran of the managed care industry. Prior to joining Centene, he was Senior Regional Director for Cigna with responsibility for the claims and service operations of the company's Tennessee market. He holds a B.S.B.A. in accounting/data processing from the University of Arkansas.

Mr. Sanders is a Certified Public Accountant with approximately 15 years of human resources experience at Peabody Energy and Mercantile Bank. He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Millikin University in Decatur, IL and a master's degree in human resources management from Washington University in St. Louis.
