

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 10 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) today announced it will host a two-hour seminar on its medical management system capability for institutional investors and sell-side analysts on Monday, February 22, 2010, at the New York Helmsley Hotel in New York City. The event will be held from 8:30 – 10:30 a.m. Eastern Time and will include a demonstration of Centene's real-time intelligence and analytics tools for medical management. Among the capabilities highlighted will be the use of dashboards and predictive modeling, and how these capabilities are used to improve health outcomes and control costs.

This is the first in a series of meetings that Centene will host from time to time to help investors and analysts better understand its systems capabilities.

Space is limited, so only those who pre-register will be admitted. Institutional investors and sell-side analysts interested in attending the event should contact Libby Abelt in the Centene Investors Relations department, either via telephone at: 1-212-759-5665 or via e-mail at: labeledt@centene.com. Registration and continental breakfast will begin at 8:00 a.m.

The second half of the meeting will be for questions and answers which may include other topics and will be webcast live beginning at 9:30 a.m. Eastern Time at the Company's website, www.centene.com, in the Investors section. A webcast replay of the Q-and-A segment will be available shortly afterwards in the same section.

Please note that the meeting time has changed from the previously announced start of noon to 8:30 a.m. Eastern Time to avoid possible travel conflicts for another meeting.
