

Centene Awarded Contract for Maryland Physicians Care Plan Operations - May 25, 2016

ST. LOUIS, May 25, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) announced today that its specialty solutions division, Envolve, Inc., has been selected by Maryland Care, Inc. d/b/a/ Maryland Physicians Care MCO to provide health plan management services for its managed Medicaid operations in Maryland effective July 1, 2017.

Maryland Physicians Care is a locally based managed care organization that administers healthcare services to over 190,000 Marylanders enrolled in the Maryland HealthChoice program. Envolve will be providing comprehensive management services for MPC's over $900 million revenues and associated medical expenses. Envolve will operate in Maryland and provide over 200 jobs starting in July 2017.

"We are honored to be selected by Maryland Physicians Care to partner with them to offer coordinated healthcare services and programs to the people of Maryland," said Jesse Hunter, Executive Vice President, Products for Centene. "We look forward to partnering with MPC to implement our innovative care management programs to improve the health of our community, one person at a time."

The contract is expected to commence in 2017 and does not impact Centene's previously announced 2016 financial guidance.
