

Centene's Kansas Subsidiary Awarded Commendable Accreditation Status From NCQA - Oct 7, 2016

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) announced today that its wholly-owned Kansas subsidiary, Sunflower Health Plan, has received national Health Plan Accreditation with a Commendable status from the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA). NCQA Health Plan Accreditation evaluates how well a health plan manages all parts of its delivery system – physicians, hospitals, other providers and administrative services – in order to continuously improve the quality of care and services provided to its members.

"Earning Commendable NCQA Accreditation is an important milestone in Sunflower Health's commitment to quality and performance improvement across services," said Rone Baldwin, Executive Vice President, Markets at Centene.

"Achieving an accreditation status of Commendable from NCQA is a sign that a health plan is serious about quality," said Margaret E. O'Kane, president, NCQA. "It is awarded to plans whose service and clinical quality meet or exceed NCQA's rigorous requirements for consumer protection and quality improvement."

Sunflower Health is a Medicaid managed care health plan that serves more than 145,000 members. The network currently includes 173 hospitals and more than 20,000 contracted providers and facilities.

The NCQA is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to improving health care quality. The NCQA accredits and certifies a wide range of health care organizations. It also recognizes clinicians and practices in key areas of performance. The NCQA is committed to providing health care quality information for consumers, purchasers, health care providers and researchers.
