

Envolve Dental Earns Two URAC Accreditations - Sep 7, 2017

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE:CNC) announced today that its wholly-owned subsidiary, Envolve Dental, Inc., has earned URAC accreditations for Dental Plan and Health Utilization Management. URAC is an independent organization that promotes healthcare quality through accreditation, certification and measurement.

By achieving these recognitions, Envolve Dental, the dental benefits administrator division of Envolve, Inc., an integrated healthcare solutions company, has demonstrated a comprehensive commitment to quality care, improved processes and better patient outcomes. The Dental Plan 7.2 Provisional Accreditation is effective for 18 months and the Health Utilization Management 7.3 Accreditation is effective for three years.

"Envolve Dental is pleased to receive URAC's accreditations," said Scott Laihinen, president and CEO of Envolve Dental. "The high standards set by URAC align with our dedication to delivering high quality, reduced cost dental care to the members we serve."

"Dental plans also need to demonstrate quality these days, and that is what Envolve Dental did by earning URAC accreditations of its services," said URAC President and CEO Kylanne Green. "With URAC accreditations, Envolve Dental shows it adheres to best practices in credentialing, management, and member relations. It has gone the extra mile to prove its quality."
