

CENTENE FILES PRELIMINARY PROXY STATEMENT FOR SPECIAL MEETING TO PROPOSE ENHANCED CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PROVISIONS - Aug 1, 2022

ST. LOUIS , Aug. 1, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) ("Centene" or the "Company") announced that it has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with a special stockholders meeting to approve amendments to Centene's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to enhance the Company's corporate governance. The proposed amendments include immediately declassifying the Board so that the terms of all of the Company's current directors will end at the 2023 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and all director nominees will stand for election annually, removing the current prohibition on stockholders calling special meetings and, subject to certain terms and conditions, permitting stockholders to act by written consent. The Company currently plans to hold the special meeting late in the third quarter or early fourth quarter of this year.

In connection with approving these proposed amendments, Centene's Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated By-Laws to permit stockholders holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of our common stock to call a special meeting, subject to certain terms and conditions. The effectiveness of this amendment is contingent on stockholder approval of the proposed amendment to the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to remove the prohibition on stockholders calling special meetings.

Additionally, James Dallas, Chairman of the Board, has informed the Board that he plans to oversee the implementation of the proposed amendments and then will step down as Chairman of the Board by the 2023 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Subsequently, Mr. Dallas will remain a director of the Company, and with passage of the declassification amendment, intends to stand for reelection as a director in 2023.

"We are very grateful to James Dallas for guiding the Centene Board of Directors through a significant evolution of the Company's governance structure over the course of 2022," said Sarah London, Chief Executive Officer of Centene. "With the announcement of our special meeting later this year, the Centene Board is demonstrating its further commitment to enhancing our governance structure for the benefit of all shareholders. James' support and leadership has been instrumental in prioritizing and executing on this important work."
