

CENTENE RECOGNIZED IN 2023 BLOOMBERG GENDER-EQUALITY INDEX - Feb 6, 2023

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) announced today it has been named to the 2023 Bloomberg Gender-Equality Index for the fourth year. The annual index recognizes companies for their policies and practices in support of women in the workforce across five pillars: leadership and talent pipeline, equal pay and gender pay parity, inclusive culture, anti-sexual harassment policies and external brand.

"We embrace and respect the range of experiences and viewpoints our employees bring to work every day and uplift the incredible contributions of the women in our workforce," said Sarah London, CEO of Centene. "Our diverse and inclusive culture is a vital part of how we serve our members and local communities across the country."

As a leading healthcare enterprise, Centene depends on the diverse ideas, experiences, and cultures of its employees in order to deliver high-quality, comprehensive and culturally sensitive healthcare to its more than 26 million members across the country. The company continually look for ways to expand its diverse and talented workforce. Today, women represent 77% of Centene's employee base, with 66% at the supervisor level and above.

To further enhance Centene's inclusive workforce culture, the company cultivates company-wide Employee Inclusion Groups (EIGs). Open to all employees, EIGs are voluntary, employee-led groups that drive impact by supporting the attraction, development and retention of the best talent at all levels. Centene's Women's Employee Inclusion Group I.N.S.P.I.R.E (Influence. Network. Support. Promote. Include. Recognize. Empower.) aims to further help its members meet their professional and personal goals at all career and life stages. The EIG is focused on leveraging tools such as targeted development sessions, mentoring and community engagement to develop women as leaders and prepare them to take on leadership opportunities at all levels of the company.
