

Trillium Community Health Plan Announces Request for Proposals to Fund Community Benefit Initiatives - Mar. 06, 2023

Approximately $18 million in grant funding will be awarded to local organizations to support projects advancing health equity

EUGENE, Ore. and TIGARD, Ore., March 6, 2023 PRNewswire/ -- Trillium Community Health Plan (Trillium) announced today a Request for Proposals (RFP) for 2023 Community Benefit Initiatives. All grant funding is designed to support projects that drive healthcare quality solutions to improve the social determinants of health through community benefit initiatives. Proposed community-level interventions may support both Trillium Oregon Health Plan members and members of the larger community, and are focused on improving health outcomes, alleviating health disparities, and advancing health equity.

Trillium will award approximately $18 million to local organizations that provide service to communities among our Tri-County and Southwest regions, with funding awards anticipated to start at $200,000 or more.

"Trillium is committed to collaborating with providers and local organizations to increase access to integrated, culturally responsive healthcare services for our members and for the community as a whole," said Sarah Kelley Brewer, Trillium Plan President & CEO. "We're proud to make this investment in innovative partnerships that will help advance health equity and build healthy communities throughout Oregon."

Organizations serving Lane, Western Douglas (Reedsport), Western Linn (Harrisburg), Multnomah, Clackamas, and Washington counties are invited to apply. Organizations are encouraged to consider submitting joint applications for funding of projects with broad community impact and collaboration.

Applications are due Friday, April 28, 2023 by 5 p.m. PT. Awards will be announced Friday, July 1, 2023.
