

Peach State Health Plan and Centene Foundation Announce $100,000 Donation to Support Hurricane Relief Efforts in Georgia
- Oct 15, 2024

Donation will aid community-based organizations in regions heavily impacted by Hurricanes Helene and Milton

ATLANTA, Oct. 15, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Peach State Health Plan, a care management organization serving Georgians through diverse health insurance solutions and Centene Foundation, the philanthropic arm of Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC), today announced $100,000 in donations to support hurricane relief efforts in Georgia following Hurricanes Helene and Milton.

The contributions will be disbursed to the Georgia Primary Care Association, the National Council on Independent Living, United Way of Southwest Georgia, United Way of Toombs, Montgomery and Wheeler Counties, Second Harvest of South Georgia, Southern Healthcare Collaboration Inc. and several faith-based organizations across Georgia.

"Peach State Health Plan's mission is, 'Here for you. Here for Georgia.' With hundreds of employees across this state, we know that in times like these, neighbors help neighbors," said Wade Rakes, chairman and CEO of Peach State Health Plan. "We are honored to fund these tremendous local community organizations that are bringing care to those who need it most."

With this funding, the recipient organizations will build on their existing efforts to provide essential goods and services to the communities most heavily impacted by the recent hurricanes. The response efforts will include the distribution of emergency food, water and shelter supplies, provision of medical care and mental health resources, transportation for displaced individuals and families, housing and infrastructure rebuilding and more.
