

CENTENE APPOINTS KENNETH Y. TANJI TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS - Feb 24, 2025

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 24, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) ("the Company") announced today the appointment of Kenneth Y. Tanji to the Centene Board of Directors, effective February 20, 2025. Mr. Tanji will serve on the Company's Audit and Compliance Committee. The appointment of Mr. Tanji expands Centene's Board of Directors to 12 members.

Mr. Tanji's finance acumen spans more than three decades and includes deep knowledge of capital optimization strategies, strategic acquisitions, JV partnership models and the use of advanced analytics and technologies to scale growth.

"Ken's dynamic business and financial expertise will be beneficial as Centene continues to tackle the most complex challenges in healthcare," said Centene CEO Sarah M. London. "We are pleased to welcome him to our Board of Directors and look forward to his contributions and insight."

Mr. Tanji most recently served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Prudential Financial, Inc., an international financial services firm offering investment, retirement and insurance services, from 2018 to 2024. From 1988 to 2018, he held numerous leadership roles across Prudential's insurance, health insurance, annuities, and investment management businesses.

Mr. Tanji currently serves on the Board of The Public Service Enterprise Group, Inc., a publicly traded, $10.4 billion-dollar, diversified energy services company. He is also a Corporate Finance professor at Rutgers University.

"Ken's robust financial experience paired with his passion for aligning organizations to capitalize on opportunities to simplify processes, embrace new technologies and enhance the customer experience will be a unique addition to our Board," said Chairman of the Board, Frederick H. Eppinger.

"Centene's leadership in healthcare is critical to advancing the health of some of our most underserved populations," said Mr. Tanji. "I'm honored to join Centene's Board of Directors and look forward to supporting the advancement of such a mission-oriented company."
