Peach State Health Plan Supports the Power of Mentorship at Big Brothers Big Sisters of America's Annual Conference

ATLANTA, June 22, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Peach State Health Plan, a leading care management organization serving Georgia and a Centene Corporation subsidiary, joined attendees at the 2026 Big Brothers Big Sisters of America (BBBSA) National Conference, reinforcing a shared commitment to strengthening communities through mentorship.

As a health plan serving communities across Georgia for more than 20 years, Peach State Health Plan recognizes that strong futures are built through meaningful connections, support systems, and opportunities for young people to thrive. Participation in BBBSA's National Conference reflects a broader commitment to invest in partnerships that strengthen youth development and help create healthier, more resilient communities.

"Supporting mentorship is part of how we think about community well-being," said Clyde White, President and CEO of Peach State Health Plan. "Opportunities like this allow us to listen, learn, and engage with organizations that are making a meaningful difference for young people and the communities they call home."

Under the theme "Big Dreams. Bigger Vision," the conference brought together affiliate leaders, community organizations, corporate partners, and advocates from across the country to share ideas, celebrate impact, and explore new ways to expand access to life-changing mentorship opportunities for young people.

"Big Brothers Big Sisters has built a network that understands both the urgency and the opportunity in supporting today's youth," said Jon Dinesman, Executive Vice President of External Affairs for Centene Corporation and a member of the Big Brothers Big Sisters of America Board of Directors. "We believe strong communities start with meaningful relationships, and mentorship is a powerful way to help young people thrive."

The conference underscores the importance of collaboration in advancing positive outcomes for youth and communities alike. Through partnerships with organizations such as Big Brothers Big Sisters, Peach State Health Plan remains committed to supporting initiatives that inspire opportunity, foster connection, and help build brighter futures for Georgia's children and families.
