Centene Corporation Appoints David Lavelly as President and CEO of OptiCare Managed Vision

ST. LOUIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC) today announced it appointed David Lavelly, O.D., as President and CEO of OptiCare Managed Vision, effective October 12, 2009. Dr. Lavelly replaces Jason Harrold, who served as President of OptiCare for 10 years. Mr. Harrold became Senior Vice President of Centene's Specialty Business Unit, of which OptiCare is a part, in August 2009.

Dr. Lavelly has been with OptiCare for more than 15 years serving in a number of roles with increasing responsibility. Most recently, he was Senior Vice President of Business Development for the company.

"Dr. Lavelly has been critical to OptiCare's success in administering quality managed and underwritten vision benefits across the country," declared Mr. Harrold. "In his new role, he will continue to provide leadership and expertise to help the company continue to deliver quality healthcare for our members."

Dr. Lavelly received his bachelor's degree from Pennsylvania State University, Doctor of Optometry from Pennsylvania College of Optometry, and Master of Business Administration from the University of Pittsburgh.

He is an active member of several organizations including the North Carolina Insurance Underwriters Association and the National Association of Health Underwriters.
