Centene Corporation and Home State Health Host Anti-Bullying Event at Boys & Girls Club of Greater St. Louis in Ferguson Middle School

ST. LOUIS, July 6, 2015 -- On Tuesday, July 7, Centene Corporation and Home State Health will host an anti-bullying event at the new Boys & Girls Club in Ferguson Middle School.

This event is part of Centene, Cenpatico, Children's National Health System and Howard University's award-winning, national initiative to prevent bullying among school-aged children. The "No Bullying Zone" event will feature renowned children's author Michelle Bain, reading her anti-bullying book called Splotch the Madpole which was co-authored with Centene, Cenpatico and anti-bullying expert Dr. Joseph Wright of Howard University.

The event continues the celebration for the June 8 opening of the Boys & Girls Club in Ferguson Middle School. Centene, Home State Health and Boys & Girls Club of Greater St. Louis designed this event to enrich the lives of young people in Ferguson with strong character messages. The children participate in the book reading to cultivate an interactive educational experience, and the children will take an anti-bullying pledge at the conclusion of the event.
